I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard His call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work, or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. O yes, these things too, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee... God wanted me now. He set me free.

“ Uncle Henry , that's what i called you , I remember you and Aunty Sherry picking me up from Head Start , when my Mother had to work , I remember you attending my Head Start graduation, I remember going to the Party House all the adults laughing having cocktails , and then you would break out and start singing, Teddy Pendergrass .. I look back now and think about how innocent and joy able those days were for you guys .. I always loved you and respected you Although your gone memories last for ever , My children have some small good memories as well . Goodbye for Now but Not forever ❤️ Love Tracie and Family

“ You were in my life most of my 66 years. I will always think of you whenever I hear an Okays' song. We sang their songs together, you were my biggest fan; Sherry's little sister that could do no wrong. You were a tall presence in our family, everyone feels the the void you've left behind. Take your rest dear brother. May God welcome you into his loving arms. Always loved in our hearts, Your little sis, Toni
