I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard His call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work, or play. I found peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. O yes, these things too, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee... God wanted me now. He set me free.

“ I have warm and wonderful memories of my aunt, known to us as EE, who was generous and kind, with a big beautiful smile. I remember how she would collect clothes and used her money to ship clothes to the Philippines, where she spent several months of the year sharing the word of God, providing for the poor when she could, and showing with action, not just words, the love she had in her heart. She will be dearly missed.

“ I always love hanging out with EE when we would visit. I remember many days spent in her restaurants, and she always cared about all the patrons. She kept a tab for the people she fondly referred to as the “cuckoos.” I remember once one of them came in asking for cigarettes, and EE said we were all out. I was maybe 6 or 7 and I said “We do have cigarettes!” I thought I was being helpful. But EE gave me the eye and said “No we don’t.” She later explained to me that this man spent more than he could afford on cigarettes. Even though she could have made more money off of him, she didn’t want to take advantage of him. I will always remember her kindness

“ We all loved Yee Yee so much! She had a smile that could light up a room! I remember how she was always so sweet and would go around offering massages to everyone! She took care of everyone. Even though we were not able to see her often, she was frequently in our thoughts and prayers.
