

Holton Murphy Brown

May 9, 1941 - June 18, 2020

Holton Murphy Brown was born May 9th, 1941 in Houston, Texas to Ophelia Murphy and Eddie Brown.

Holton attended school until the 9th grade; he decided early on in life to become self-sufficient.

In his adult years he relocated between Las Vegas and California. He worked and retired as a card dealer in the casino which he loved with a passion. He later married Jean and they both became active members of the Church of God in Christ in California. He became a Deacon and loved to pray for anyone in need of prayer.

Holton was a people person because his energy was fueled by love and laughter. He also loved to dance and his family was so important to him. He loved all of his nieces and nephews.

Holton leaves behind his sister Lillian Browning of Las Vegas, NV and a host of nieces and nephews in Houston, TX, Las Vegas, NV, and Los Angeles, CA. He will always be loved and missed!

We will always miss his favorite words, 'I'll knock you in the snoutbox.'

Tribute Wall

“ God Bless the family ”

serena lawson - July 28, 2020 at 09:29 PM