I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard His call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work, or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. O yes, these things too, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee... God wanted me now. He set me free.

“ Dearest Houston, what a combination of rascalness and pure love you are. You could heal people with your ability to make them laugh so hard. I am so glad for our friendship, and how much I learned from you. I will always remember our years at the welfare dept, where paperwork and regulations was not your forte; but you could walk anywhere near our building and clients would come out of the woodwork to greet you with such happiness. That is what you gave them, a feeling of respect and care. This happened repeatedly. Such blessings.
