#33 When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey and I travel my last weary mile, just forget if you can, that I ever frowned and remember only the smile. Forget unkind words I have spoken; remember some good I have done. Forget that I ever had heartache and remember I've had loads of fun. Forget that I have stumbled and blundered and sometimes fell by the way. Remember I have fought some hard battles and won, ere the close of the day, then forget to grieve for my going, I would not have you sad for a day, But in summer just gather some flowers and remember the place where I lay, and come in the evening when the sun paints the sky in the west, stand for a few moments beside me and remember only my best.

Tribute Wall

“ As the sun sets on a magnificent summer day I remember how you loved the beach and riding the waves with me and the boys. You live on in our hearts and the memories we shared. You truly are missed every day. The summers are just not the same without you! Long live our beach boy riding the waves in the sky.
