

Irene McHone

October 23, 1953 - February 12, 2020

Irene McHone (nee Jakimow) 66, peacefully passed away February 12, 2020 at her home in Las Vegas. A 1972 graduate of Sachem High School in Lake Ronkonkoma, NY, she went on to cosmetology school and worked on Long Island, NY. She was born to the late Richarda and Boris Jakimow in Queens New York. Irene was the devoted mother of Heidi Marie Feicht, devoted Grammy to Jaliyah, Maranda and Adellah and was a fiancé and best friend to Ray Ellis.

Irene is Preceded in death by beloved Thomas Claude McHone, loving siblings, Catherine Bartel Herpfer, her brother Christopher Bartel and dad, Igor Bartel. She is survived by daughter; Heidi Marie Feicht, grandchildren; Jaliyah, Maranda and Adellah, mom; Adele Bartel, sister; Maria Del Valle, brothers; John, Paul and William; nieces; Allie, Jeanine, Melissa, Christina, Bianca, Layla and nephews; John and Jimmy, step-son's Michael and Matthew Ellis and many aunts, uncles and cousins.

When Irene was 3, her mother passed away at the age of 29. At the time, her other siblings were 4 and 6. it was then that Irene's Uncle Igor and young wife Adele took all three children in. They knew it would be difficult, but did not want the kids separated. Before you knew it, all three children were calling them mom and dad.

Irene was loving, compassionate, and a peacekeeper. She had a voice and laugh like no other and the days before she left us, continued to make us laugh. Irene's favorite holiday was Christmas and loved having people over, entertaining and cooking. Irene will continue to be loved and missed beyond measure.

All arrangements are private and there will be a memorial, date to be determined.
