

James P Egloff

October 14, 1930 - December 12, 2021

Let not your hearts be troubled; believe in God, believe also in Me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, would I have told you that I go and prepare a place for you? And when I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also.

“ I'm sorry I'm just now seeing this. I'm sorry for your loss. I just had a dream about Jim so I figured I had to check. Jim was a great man I met him March 8th 2012 when I started working at Ace Hardware. He taught me a lot and showed people that not only men can know what they're doing in a hardware store. RIP Jim. Your with your wife now taking a nap while watching the ball game while she makes you dinner happy as ever you will be forever missed. Rest easy up there and tell BB I said hi.

“ Our sympathy to you and your family. The way you stepped up by moving your father in with you and caring for him over the years shows what kind of man he and your mother raised. If you need anything, we're here for you. Your friends and neighbors, Michael and Carolyn Towers
