

James William Fox Jr.

August 5, 1961 - October 29, 2018

James W. Fox Jr.

Jimmy was born in Yonkers, NY to James & Rose (nee Manegio) Fox. His childhood was hectic, but memorable with his six siblings. He is preceded in death by his parents, his brother Joe, and his two sisters Sandra & Mary. However, Jimmy is survived by many loved ones, his wife Donna (nee Beairsto), his two children Anthony & Aleighsha, his brother Richie, his two sisters Rosalie & Robin, and a plethora of aunts, cousins, nephews, nieces, friends, and even the remaining family pets Edward (cat) and Pumpkin (dog). While in Yonkers Jimmy was a painter by trade, until he and his wife decided to move to Las Vegas, NV to start a family of their own. From 1989 to 2011 he worked in the printing industry having been medically retired the last seven years of his life.

After 30 years of being a loving husband and father Jimmy passed away on October 29, 2018 in Las Vegas, NV at the age of 57.

Jimmy and Donna married each other on March 19, 1988. This being a part of the family joke of them starting to date on the 16th ('87), getting married on the 19th ('88), and having their first kid (Anthony) on the 25th ('89). Their daughter, Aleighsha, was born on August 5, 1991.

Jimmy enjoyed a variety of sports, being a lifelong fan of the NY Mets & Jets. When he was younger he played and managed softball, entering various tournaments. It can be easily argued he loved cartoons more though, as he would change the channel from a game to Bugs Bunny or Tom & Jerry in any given sports bar. He also liked blasting music, avid reading, and watching movies with anything from the 80's, Clive Cussler, and westerns being his favorite.

However, more than anything Jimmy loved to talk. He would chew the ears off anyone who would listen, be them lifelong friends or complete strangers. And they would let him, because he was consistently a joy to be around. The conversations would drag on longer than this obituary, but it was ok, because he could talk about everything or nothing and still be fun to spend time with. He is already dearly missed and will continue to be missed for the rest of everybody's lives he has touched.
