Jamilia Helen Hinkley

November 5th, 1926 - April 30th, 2018

An amazing cook; Self-taught green thumb; Happy "Hollywood" ending movie aficionado; Extremely supportive and caring; World's best mom; Sister; Auntie and friend - passed away on the 30th of April, 2018.

Jamilia Helen Hinkley, was born November 5th, 1926 in Oxnard California to Nicklaus and Helen Murr, and she had two brothers; John and George Murr; both of which predeceased her. She worked in the family-owned C Street Market and later in life as a legal secretary and an officer for the Children's Home Society of California. She was married to Dewey Floyd Hinkley for over 64 years and together they had one son; Lance; who loves his mom very, very much! Her husband, Dewey, predeceased her.

Jamilia was an outstanding cook and acquired her skills undoubtedly while carefully observing her mom's excellent cooking. Her mother, Helen, was Lebanese and loved Mediterranean Cuisine. It was in Jamilia's genes! She made the best lamb and grape leaves dish, baba ghanouj, tabbouleh, falafel, hummus, baklava, and of course loads of flatbread! My dad and myself sure ate well! In Arabic, the translation of Jamilia means beautiful. She was indeed beautiful and loving, caring, kind, and extremely supportive. She was quick to make new friends. Jamilia was a self-taught plant expert. Her rose bushes were simply gorgeous and the Cymbidium Orchids flourish under her care.

Jamilia is buried in the Hinkley family plot located at Palm Northwest Mortuary

& Cemetery, 6701 N Jones Blvd, Las Vegas, Nevada 89131.
