

Jerry Dean Lopez

May 2, 1952 - January 10, 2021

Jerry Dean Lopez, 68, of Las Vegas, NV, passed away on January 10th, 2021, in Las Vegas, NV due to cardiac arrest.

He was born in White Pine, Ely, NV on May 2nd, 1952 but called the Las Vegas area home for most of his life. He worked as a security officer in several of Las Vegas casinos before retiring.

Jerry will be joining his predeceased loved ones, his father (Joseph B Lopez), mother (Ida Tarin), brother (Joe Lopez), and niece (LeeAnn Marie Vasquez).

He is survived and remembered fondly by his daughter and her husband (Jenny Lopez and Ron Wright), grandchildren (Kaiser and Skyla), younger sister and brother-in-law (Lori and Johnny Hurst), nieces and nephews (Frankie Vasquez, Jessica Mendoza, and Kelli Vasquez), and their families (Junior Mendoza, Krista Vasquez, Jamie Vasquez, Irish Aquino, Isaac Mendoza, Ivy Mendoza, Jedda Vasquez, Daemian Vasquez, Rosalia Vasquez).

Jerry was an avid outdoorsman who spent much of his youth at peace with nature. His favorite place was Yellowstone National Park. He was an animal lover, with a special affinity for bears of all sorts.

His favorite past-times throughout his life involved traveling, camping, and spending quality time with his family. He was a food enthusiast, free spirit, and he was partial to action/war movies.

Jerry will be cremated and privately celebrated by his surviving loved ones.

His departure weighs heavily on the hearts of his family, and he will be missed more than words can express. May he rest in peace until his essence joins the Earth once again.

“ To my dear brother, You will be missed dearly. You were the brother that helped raised and protected me. We been together for 59 and a half years. Your love for life for nature and animals. Now that your with our family your not suffering from your heart. You are in that beautiful garden that you had visited before. You described it as peaceful and green everything was bright and loving. Now you and Joe can enjoy each other company, because Joe was visiting you. I will always cherish the memories that we had growing up together. Love little sis, Lori I will miss you.. I will always miss you Jerry..
