Miss Me but Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me I want no rites in a gloom-filled room. Why cry for a soul that's set free. Miss me a little, but not too long and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared. Miss me, but let me go. For this is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we knew and laugh at the things that we used to do. Miss me, but let me go.

“ No more pain Jiena. We will remember your love an laughter forever. You were a beautiful light in this world and you will be missed very much. Tayden- if you ever need anything please reach out to me through messenger on Facebook. Your mom loved you more than you can ever imagine. She fought until the end to stay with you and you were her greatest joy. She was so proud of you. You taught us all so much just watching your strength, positive attitutde and sense of humor while facing such a tough journey. Always in our hearts, you are safe in Jesus' arms now. Rest in peace Jiena, until we see each other again in heaven.
