

Jodi Marie Hoemann-Lucious

December 21, 1962 - June 10, 2025

On Tuesday, June 10, 2025, Jodi Marie Hoemann Lucious went to be with her Lord at the age of 62. Jodi was born December 21, 1962, in St. Louis, Missouri, to Gerry and Jan Hoemann. Jodi married Austin Lucious Jr. in Blythe, California, on October 7, 1998. They moved to Las Vegas, Nevada, where she earned an Associate of Arts Degree in Food and Beverage Service, an industry where she worked much of her life.

Jodi was a very compassionate person with a big heart, always willing to help others.

She is known for her love of family (children, grandchildren, and her great-grandchild), animals, reading books, and her strong faith. Jodi was very resourceful and also looked forward to going on the yearly family reunions where she was the go-to person for hair and makeup. Her sons remember her as leading them to the Lord, the best gift a mother can give. She also really enjoyed playing and going shopping with her grandchildren.

Jodi was preceded in death by her parents. She is survived by her husband Austin Eugene Lucious Jr., her sons Charles (Espie), Christian, and Austin III, and daughters Maizah Lucious, Tamasa Lucious, and Eugenia Lucious. In addition, she will be greatly missed by Paula Hoemann, siblings Jill Hoemann, Katie (Richard) Dobson, David (Olivia) Cude, and Michael Cude, as well as 12 grandchildren and 1 great-granddaughter.

Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me

I want no rites in a gloom filled room

Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long and not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love that once we shared.

Miss me but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take, and each must go alone.

It's all part of the master plan, A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,

Go to the friends we know.

Laugh at all the things we used to do.

Miss me but let me go.

“ There are truly no words to express my sadness for the loss of Jodi. I have known Jodi for many years as her sister Jill is my mom's best friend. So in my childhood years she was my aunt Jodi. There are so many memories I have of her like spending the night at her house and calling 911 because I didn't feel good. However, I will share of my favorites. One day I was having a hard time with a bully at school and I had asked her to teach me how to fight. She took the time to talk with me about other options. She helped me in a way that allowed me to feel more at ease and her advice worked. I will never forget her for that moment alone! Jodi, I am so grateful that you are no longer in pain and at peace. -_ Thank you for accepting me and loving me as part of your family. I am sending you all my love and the biggest hugs up to heaven. I love you forever!!
