God's Garden

God looked around His garden and found an empty place. He then looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face. He knew that you were suffering. He knew that you were in pain. He knew that you would never get well on earth again. He saw the road getting rough and the hills were hard to climb. So He closed your weary eyelids and whispered 'peace is thine.' He put His arms around you and He lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful, He only takes the best. If tears could build a stairway, and heartaches could make a lane, we'd walk a path to Heaven and bring you home again.

“ My darling son, it is still hard for me to believe that you have departed this earth. You are always on my mind. I live and miss you so very much. Until we meet again.

“ Hey Joel, I'm saddened to find your passing; as well as lost that we didn't get to connect after you started your own firm. Thanks for being an influence on my life both personally and professionally. I hope you are rocking out in heaven and winning more tables than you can ever count. I know you are in a better place with the one you love. May you rest well..

“ October, 2022, Dennis and I along with my brother in law and sister in law, Rick & Diane were in Las Vegas....we were able to connect with Carlos & Cheryl, our dear Florida friends & neighbors, as they had recently moved to Las Vegas to be closer to their son, Joel. The get together was a bit quiet at first, as Joel knew none of us... but within an hour, we were all talking and laughing and sharing a huge but delicious pizza. We did not know Joel well, but we know his parents, and that tells us right there what a good man he was. Cheryl, I know there is a tremendous whole in your heart, and most days you just get by..... but may the constant love of caring friends soften your sadness, may cherished memories bring you moments of comfort, may lasting peace surround your grieving heart. The Loos Family sends you endless love and prayers our dear, sweet friend.

“ Joel was a friend of mine. Got to know him through working with him. We shared an interest in music, especially guitarist and sometimes we ended up at the same concerts. He knew so much about a lot of things and come to find he was just really smart. Joel was too young to go. Will miss him and keep him in my thoughts. Deepest condolences to the Martinez family.

“ Dearest Joel, Words cannot express the pain we feel since you left us to join our Heavenly Father. We will never forget the humorous conversations we shared, and the times we all spent together with family. They were always special. You were a brilliant young man. You accomplished your dream of opening a CPA firm of your own, in Vegas, NV. Your name was published in The Book of Menses. You are a shining star. You are loved and will be missed forever and ever. RIP our dear nephew, Joel Anthony. ❤️❤️ Love. Uncle Beanie (As you called him and Aunt Vangie, as you called me.)

“ Joel. Though I didn't know you that well, I know the joy you brought to the lives of your parents. They spoke highly of you so I know you were a wonderful person. Your passing is such a loss to your mother. Candy
