When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey and I travel my last weary mile, just forget if you can, that I ever frowned and remember only the smile. Forget unkind words I have spoken; remember some good I have done. Forget that I ever had heartache and remember I've had loads of fun. Forget that I have stumbled and blundered and sometimes fell by the way. Remember I have fought some hard battles and won, ere the close of the day, then forget to grieve for my going, I would not have you sad for a day, But in summer just gather some flowers and remember the place where I lay, and come in the evening when the sun paints the sky in the west, stand for a few moments beside me and remember only my best.

“ Johnny was a champion for the underdog and fiercely protective of the people he loved. He was the one who would make jokes when situations were serious because he wanted everyone around him laughing and smiling. He felt things on a deeper level than most but hid it behind his charming smiles, jokes, off-color humor and sarcasm. He was sassy, quick-witted, straightforward and had a playful personality. He didn't have a filter. He said what he thought needed to be said even if it hurt some feelings; Honesty was significant to him. He loved traveling, nature, fishing with his brother Robert, the ocean, snowboarding, hiking, writing songs, lending a helping hand to his friends, hot sauce, and the artist Mac Miller was his idol. He was driven, determined and working hard at his company to build a better life for his daughter Mia.
