Dios, vio que él estaba cansado una curación no debia ser, asi que él puso sus brazos alrededor de él, y susurrando dijo "Ven A Mi". Con los ojos llorosos lo miramos sufrir, y lo vimos partir, aunque lo amamos, no lo pudimos detener. Un corazón de oro paró de latir, y sus manos trabajadoras descansan. Dios rompió nuestros corazones para provarnos que, él solo se lleva lo mejor.

“ My condolences to the family of a great man. I had the pleasure of knowing and working with Jose for 6 years and in that time he became a good friend. Always happy and smiling and doing his best to help any and everyone. Whether work related or personally. I will truly miss him and I know god truly has another angel with him. Thank you Jose for giving me the pleasure of meeting such a genuine person and good friend!

“ My uncle was a great humble man who steered me in the most humblest way and taught me to be the man that I should be and I won't ever forget nor disgrace those words of wisdom and take it in my life to fulfill those great words he shared with me when no one else would say and be real with me how a uncle and a friend should be and say to anyone ,so I'm here to say I love this man for who he shall forever be known as a great father uncle and friend I love you tio I'll be happy to see you on the other side .
