The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.

Amen

Tribute Wall

“ It is one of the Greatest of sadness to have lost both Parents, perhaps because now our Creators are no longer with us in life. However it is even “Greater” to remember the Love, Care, Cherished/Happy memories of such Great Parents. . And just as with Mom, Dad was exactly that!

Recently about a week ago or two, there was such a spiritual/soul connection with both Mom & Dad and it was beautiful, powerful and everlasting. I truly believe in the Afterlife we will once again rejoice! That in time we all will unite in a State of Warmth and Glee. So with this Message, is such Hope.

Once again for a family looking “Back” to the days of good ole Canarsie, Brooklyn.

A Lifestyle in a Great neighborhood, Home, Family & Friends! Cherished moments in Time. Past Holidays, Family Events/Birthdays, Family & Friends visiting, etc.

A home where both Dad & Mom welcomed All with beautiful loving Smiles & laughs.

Holidays with all the Trimmings. Pastries, Cornish Hens, Chestnuts and Sides.

The House decorated inside and out, Christmas Trees decorated! The house always Clean and smelling like Pledge!

Playing Pokeno between the Dining Room and Kitchen. And of course using the Red Chips and hearing “POKENO!”.

Great, Great Times. Great, Great Memories. Love & Cherished Memories.

Along those Memories include walking with Dad to the Pat & Rich Milkfarm, Shopping at Sunnydale Milkfarm, TSS Dept Store, GreatEastern and Ave L stores.

Going out to Grabsteins, Picking up Pizza from Originals and buying Hotdogs from Fat Eddy.

Then working together during the Summer Months at Morgan Guarantee Trust, taking the Command Bus into the Wall Street area.

Hopping off for a Two Dollar Breakfast joint that only Dad would know of!

The Florida visit to Grandma & Grandpa Pironti and going to Six Gun Territory.

Of course the location of the Creature from the Black Lagoon. And who could forget "Monkee! Monkee! Monkee!!".

Yes, great warm memories.

And so I hope this message gets to you Mom & Dad, and All that are passing thru.

Always & Forever,

Your First Born Son, Raymond

What the hell do you care!! You are a joke and karma will get you. First born trader. Go to hell.

It's funny how you remember this but you don't remember the pain, disappointment, and disgrace that you are. You truly deserve nothing. Mom and Dad were very very unhappy with what you did. All I can say to you is that KARMA will get you and on your judgement day you will beg for forgiveness.

“ Thank everyone who attended Dads Memorial Service and o those of you who sent Thoughts and Prayers.

I'm sure that my Dad is looking down on us right now and is proud to see all of you who attending his celebration of life ceremony. I'm also sure that he would like to have told you his story or two on his journey while on his way to heaven.

For those of you who knew my Dad know he loved to tell his stories of his life experiences.

His stories about growing up in the streets of Roger's Avenue in Brooklyn, his stories about employment with JP Morgan , his stories of the music he loved, his stories of the celebrities he met, his stories about his family and his stories about his wife (our Mom).

Dad loved his family and worked hard, even worked during the weekend to support his family to give us the things that we wanted and needed.

He truly made huge sacrifices to ensure that we lived a good standard of life. A beautiful home and plenty of great Italian food.

A true family man who put the needs of his family first and foremost. For that I love him, appreciate him, cherish him and respect him to the utmost and miss him.

I'm kind of missing his stories right about now. Even the ones I heard one thousand times over.

It warms my heart and gives me comfort knowing that he is out of pain and is now with Mom.

Seeing the their urns side by side is a loving and beautiful sight. Together in love and eternity.

May you Rest in eternal Peace Pop and please please please tell Mom that we love her, miss her and be sure to give her a huge hug and kisses for us.

Amen Dad, ciao.

“ When I first began writing this, my instinct was to say, "Big Joe was." But the more I thought about him— his booming voice, his love for Elvis, his storytelling— the more I realized that "was" isn't correct. "Is" is more apt. Big Joe is a caring, loving, exuberant man, father, grandfather. Big Joe is forever going to be a part of all the people whose lives he was able to touch. I'm so grateful to have had him in my life. And I'm happy that he is able to be with Rose again.

“ Dad, thank you for all the sacrifices you made for our family. It was rough since we had an unfortunate situation with your first born. How quickly you and mommy were forgotten about by him and his family. But know this that we had the best parents ever. You both have given us love, respect, kindness, strength, support and so much more. I know that you are finally with mommy now. I wish I could see that reunion. I love you dad. Until we meet again. Give mommy a kiss for me. I will miss you both so very much.
