

Joseph L Perry

October 20, 1953 - May 20, 2025

When I must leave you for a little while, please do not grieve and shed wild tears and hug your sorrow to you through the years, but start out bravely with a gallant smile; and for my sake and in my name live on and do all things the same. Feed not your loneliness on empty days, but fill each waking hour in useful ways. Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer and I in turn will comfort you and hold you near; and never, never be afraid to die, for I am waiting for you in the sky!

“ Joe was my older brother. He was always there for me and will forever be a part of who I am. I will cherish the memories that we created together with my younger brother and grandfather. Some of the best times were the simple things; working a paper route together, little league games, and rides on the back of his motorcycle. I believe that when we die, our life goes on and look forward to a time when I will see him again. Until then, thoughts and memories will have to do. I love you. -Chris

“ Joe was my older brother, and he was always there whenever I needed him. I will cherish the memories we made for the rest of my life, as they are a huge part of who I am. I believe that when we die our life goes on, and the light of our souls shine forever. When my time comes to join you, I will be looking for your beacon to guide the way. Until then, rest peacefully my brother, I love you. -C
