Miss Me but Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me I want no rites in a gloom-filled room. Why cry for a soul that's set free. Miss me a little, but not too long and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared. Miss me, but let me go. For this is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we knew and laugh at the things that we used to do. Miss me, but let me go.

“ We met Josh when our son, Daniel, brought him to our home in Laredo, Texas, while training in Corpus Christi, Texas, with the Naval Air Training School. Thereafter, Josh joined Daniel to several visits to Laredo for family celebrations. He assimilated into the family seamlessly, like a son. We enjoyed his childhood stories. It was our pleasure having him in our home. We welcomed him with opened arms. He really enjoyed our cookouts, especially the beef fajitas and guacamole and of course, the tequila shots. Josh never left with an empty stomach and we always made sure to send him off with plenty of leftovers. He was an amazing person, very knowledgeable and sweet. He was a real gentleman and a great friend to my son, Daniel. He will be greatly missed. Rest in peace, Josh and Fly high! Our deepest condolences to the Carpenter Family. The Farías Family, Laredo Texas.
