Miss Me but Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me I want no rites in a gloom-filled room. Why cry for a soul that's set free. Miss me a little, but not too long and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared. Miss me, but let me go. For this is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, go to the friends we knew and laugh at the things that we used to do. Miss me, but let me go.

“ Carlos I am happy to have recently told you how much my grandson Abel loved you. He said you were very strong, you worked hard and you loved football, and you bought him good presents lol!. I am grateful and thank you for taking in my son (as hard as that was) and grateful you were always there for my grandson in his dad's absence. You were a great, humble and giving man. You took care of people and supported everyone in your presence in every sense of the word. You loved my friend Maria and all her daughters like your own girls Mariah and Lupita. We will never forget you and we will all see you in Heaven someday. God bless your soul.

“ Saw you at the Vegas Draft BBQ and saw how much Niner gear you were wearing and thought that was awesome, then we met up on Freemont and walked around with your group and I thought that was awesome and to find out that after I got home that I had won your flag from the raffle Forever Faithful Clique and that was awesome. R.I.P. ❤️

“ My stepdad made sure we were all happy and safe. He had the biggest heart; he was the life of the party. Carlos made sure we stayed on the straight and narrow path and helped us in any way we needed. He helped me buy my first car; he always had us sit down and listen to his advice so we can live a happy and successful life. I will forever cherish these happy moments and continue to make him proud. Mae, Clumsy, and I will Always love you and keep you in our hearts.

“ Juan was an amazing Father, Grand-father and friend. He was always very happy, extremely hardworking, outgoing and supportive of everyone in his life . He always wanted the best for everyone and brighten every room he was in. I couldn't ask for a better step-father or grand-father for my children. I will always love you and never forget you. Thank you for everything. May you Rest In Peace.
