When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while, please do not grieve and shed wild tears and hug your sorrow to you through the years, but start out bravely with a gallant smile; and for my sake and in my name live on and do all things the same. Feed not your loneliness on empty days, but fill each waking hour in useful ways. Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer and I in turn will comfort you and hold you near; and never, never be afraid to die, for I am waiting for you in the sky!

“ It was a great pleasure to be able to work with Karen at the EPA. She was always a hard worker and very conscientious in fulfilling her duties. I always admired how she overcame her physical challenges and never let them stop her from doing anything. I will miss calling and talking to her. ”
