A Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me. Remember the best times, the laughter, the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again."

“ It's true life does take us in different directions sometimes. But it is also true I never had a friend as good as you. I also never had a friend's family take me in as one of their own. I love you and your family. I can only hope we can get together on the other side. ”

“ There were so many good times we shared. She always brought her love to every living thing she would encounter. She never asked for much, and she always gave all she had. I'm so glad we got to spend so many years together.
