I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard His call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work, or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. O yes, these things too, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee... God wanted me now. He set me free.

“Karl. So many people thought they knew you, yet no one truly did. I hope you've found your peace and happiness. Thinking of you now and again, mate. Maybe in another life?”

“Dearest Karl, your suffering is over. We met many years ago. At least 10+ years maybe 15. Your smile was so beautiful and laughter. I remember when you were trying to sell your Jeep and things were difficult at your apartment. I was so worried for you at times. Trying to get you to consider going to some AA meetings. You must have been fighting some tough demons. I will cherish our times together. I tried to get you to slow down. Gone too soon for sure. The struggle for some o. Earth is just too much. I know heaven is beautiful, until we meet again one day. Sending blessings to your family. We last spoken August of 2021. Hard to believe it's been that long. Life is so precious...”

“ I don't believe this to be true, maybe I'm still in shock. Please If family can see this I would like to know how he passed away. My name is Nina and Karl and I were best friends in Junior high at Theodore Roosevelt High School in the Bronx. He and I shared so much but when I moved we lost each other's phone numbers and it became hard to stay friends ever since. My email is ninakochan7@gmail.com...please somebody contact me. If this is true...then I pray for the family. He had an older brother which i remember vaguely and he also had a daughter on Facebook. We should have stayed friends Karl...
