When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey and I travel my last weary mile, just forget if you can, that I ever frowned and remember only the smile. Forget unkind words I have spoken; remember some good I have done. Forget that I ever had heartache and remember I've had loads of fun. Forget that I have stumbled and blundered and sometimes fell by the way. Remember I have fought some hard battles and won, ere the close of the day, then forget to grieve for my going, I would not have you sad for a day, But in summer just gather some flowers and remember the place where I lay, and come in the evening when the sun paints the sky in the west, stand for a few moments beside me and remember only my best.

“ I was truly sad to find out the news that my childhood friend was no longer with us. Kendall was always kind, funny and a very positive person. I had a CD of us jamming together back in 77 and wanted to get it to him for the longest time. Whenever a song from that jam I get sad but also happy that I knew him. Rest easy my friend

“ I am so sad to learn that Kendall died. I had no idea until today! No one told me. I wondered why I never heard from him. He was a very nice person with an excellent personality and a spectacular sense of humor. He was good to me. God rest his soul.
