Bridge of Memory

There is a bridge of memory.

From earth to heaven above.

It keeps you always near us,

it's called the bridge of love.

May you always walk in sunshine

and God's love around you flow,
for happiness you gave us,
no one will ever know.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you did not go alone,
for part of us went with you.

The day God called you home.

“ Dad I still don't know how to get past this. I still don't know how to not get knots in my stomach and a watery eye Every-time I think about you. I wasn't ready for this. Im only 25 and have a whole life to live and you never get to see it. You will never see me walk down the aisle or have kids. Its not fair and I am so angry by it.

“ Hey dad, just wanted to keep you updated with everything thats going on in my life. It will be 6 months in two day since we lost you. Its been really hard on me and Im trying to move past it, but its taking a little longer then expected. I still in school still have my 4.0 we always knew I was going to be in the science field. Im just ready to finally make a difference in the world. I also recently quit my job I was so unhappy after 6 years of being so dedicated to my job. Im disappointed it ended but ready to start a new chapter. My new chapter will be phlebotomy I want to work in the hospitals so I get the hands on feel of what I eventually will be involved with. I have a new chapter that has started recently in my love life. His name is marcus and he is everything I have dreamed for in a man. He makes me so happy I haven't been happy in a long time. He is helping with the grieving process of losing you. Idk I think he might just be the one for me. He is meeting the family Saturday and Im meeting his on Sunday. I wish you would get to meet him but I think your the one that sent him to me. As I end this catch up with you I came around a old voicemail the other day from you. I just need you to know I love you. I miss you
