“ Aww Kim, I am so sad I won't ever see your beautiful smile or hear your wonderful laugh again except in my memory. I am so very sorry for your pain. I hope you are at peace. Watch over those you love and send them signs so they know . You touched my life and I am grateful . I will miss you. Sweet dreams my young friend, sweet dreams. ❤️❤️

“ Such a bright light , Although our time working together was not long , you made an impact on everyone you came in contact with. You were always the friendliest face with the brightest smile , welcoming and engaging and even a sly sarcastic sense of humor. Thank you for being kind to me always. You will be extremely missed.

“ Our lives will never be the same. You left way to soon. As I look back I can remember your first days, your childhood running around the old neighborhood, playing softball and you getting so mad because I was the loudest one yelling from the stands. Your wedding day. These are all memories that we will hold close to our hearts. Love Mom

“ To my Kimmy. I wish I had the words to put into our friendship, but 15 years is a lot to put onto paper. Thank you for showing me what a real friendship is, for growing with me, and for every smile you've given me when I needed it most. There wasn't a mean bone in your body. There wasn't anything bad about you. You made everyone you came in contact with, better. You made me better in more ways than one. I will carry your memory on, I will tell my kids and grandkids about you. About how beautiful you are. About how everyone needs a kimmy in their life. I always thought you were so lucky to be liked by everyone, to have so many friends but honestly, I was the lucky one to be blessed to know someone like you. I love you forever. Fly high my girl ❤️
