Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one. I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when my life is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways. Of happy times and laughing times and bright sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun. Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

“ I have fond memories of growing up around Kirby, his interactions with my brothers, listing to plays he made one the football field and his sense of humor. It was great to be around him when he returned to Woolley. Sorry for your loss.
