

LA Deville

May 28, 1961 - March 29, 2023

On March 29th 2023, LA Deville passed peacefully in his sleep. LA is survived by his sweetheart and life partner Candice Curtis. He was born May 28th 1961 in San Diego, California and adopted by loving parents Lawrence and Evelyn Haller. He spent much of his childhood on the beautiful beaches and tropical climate of Hawai'i and California.

Anyone who knew LA knew that his personality was one of the many things that attracted people to him. He was a smart man who made it easy for people to confide in him. He was known for his go-getter personality. Not afraid to pursue the things that he wanted in life. Many people saw the kind heart spirit but don't let that fool you, he was the first to jump to the defense of those in need. He was always lending a helping hand to those in need, making him many lifelong friends.

LA had a passion for sales, which ultimately led to him creating and operating his own clothing line. He found great passion in the inner workings of owning that clothing company. When not found working, LA was found participating in many thrilling hobbies. One of those was found serenading the world with the love of his guitar. In respect to the fact that LA grew up in Hawai'i, it is no wonder another of his favorite hobbies was surfing. Riding the waves from the islands of Hawai'i and California was one of his favorite pastimes. He also found great joy in running. For him it was a form of therapy. One of LA's greatest treasures was his motorcycle. Whether on route to work or just a leisure ride, his motorcycle was his rush of adrenaline.

In the words of Russell M Nelson "The only way to take sorrow out of death is to take love out of life." LA was loved by many and will be sorely missed, but have no doubt the reunion he is having with his family and friends on the other side is a joyous one.

Tribute Wall

“ Carl you will be so missed. I am sure your loved one s are keeping you happy and busy. Until. We met again ”

Tammy Curtis - April 08, 2023 at 12:11 PM