

Leonard T Esposito

April 30, 1934 - October 29, 2020

A Brooklyn native born in 1934 to Sam and Jean Esposito, he was a Marine and Firefighter before coming to Las Vegas in the 60s. He went on to work in the gaming business for more than 30 years. Survived by brothers Frank and Joe and nieces Destiny and Bliss, he was a generous family man who loved to cook, travel, and make people laugh. A legendary storyteller, we will always remember how many Nathan's hotdogs he ate on his way home from boot camp, but also why he would never again trust his sister-in-law to make brownies. We love and miss you, Uncle Lenny. Las Vegas may have lost you, but Heaven just got a new pit boss.

Tribute Wall

BS

“ Lenny...you were a dear friend and will be missed. Thanks for all those stories and welcoming me, a non veteran, to the veterans table at SCA. You always worried about me getting a ride home. Thanks for looking out for me. God's speed.

---

Billy Swartz - January 19, 2021 at 07:03 PM

DH

“ My condolences go out to your family and friends. Leonard and I spoke frequently about real estate and was always a great guy to talk to. Really sorry to see this. Rest easy Mr. Esposito.

---

David Hollingsworth - January 07, 2021 at 04:41 PM

JP

“ My heartfelt sympathy to his family and close friends. I was deeply hurt to hear the news of his passing. He was a tremendous person with a larger than life personality. He meant so much to me and my family and will be deeply missed. His parents were my Godparents but I called him "Uncle". Very sad I was unable to talk with him but his stories, his compassion and his advice throughout the years will forever be etched in my life. May he rest in peace and be welcomed by his dear parents.

---

John Del Pizzo - December 18, 2020 at 05:14 PM

AP

“ My deepest condolences. His parents were next door neighbors in Brooklyn and baptized my brother John. Lenny was always polite, funny & family oriented. Although we lost contact over the last few years, he will always be like "my older brother ". I was saddened to read the news. May the love & support of family and friends ease the pain in the hearts of his wonderful family. AnnaMarie Del Pizzo

---

Anna Marie Del Pizzo - December 16, 2020 at 10:30 PM