

Linda Greenblatt

December 13, 1951 - May 20, 2023

Linda was born on December 13, 1951, in Brooklyn, NY, to Rose and Joe Schwartz.

This obituary is 3-years in the making. Not out of a lack of respect, but out of a desire to protect her husband, Jay.

Jay was diagnosed with advanced dementia while Linda was in the hospital for the last time. Doctors said he couldn't process the loss, and knowing their relationship, he couldn't handle it if he did. So, the very difficult decision was made to keep her passing "under wraps" until he could be told.

That was their love. After 35 years together, he couldn't comprehend a life without her.

Now, with Jay's passing, we celebrate and memorialize her life... and what a life it was!

Linda entertained the world with her true tales. A gifted storyteller, she foiled purse snatchers and home invaders, accidentally stole parked cars, and rescued every animal she ever met.

From squirrels on their Forest Hills fire escape to disabled ducks in the lake behind their Boynton Beach home, animals flocked to her. She was the original Disney Princess... with rapier wit, and the ability to make you feel like the most special person in the world.

She was generous, kind, and always there for the people she loved.

Linda was also the best step-mom (and friend) in the world. She embraced her step-daughter, Sheryl, as her own and provided support and a guiding hand in good times and in bad.

She is lovingly remembered by Sheryl, her son-in-law, Tom, her older sister, Eileen; her niece and nephew, Stacey (Jason) and Scott (Dawn); and her great-nieces and nephew, Rebecca, Brianna, and Alex.

Services will be announced at a later date. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to your favorite animal rescue.
