I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard His call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work, or play. I found peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. O yes, these things too, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee... God wanted me now. He set me free.

“ Linda and I met and became fast friends in Albany, New York. Her husband and my husband, Eugene (Gene) Jordan were best friends. We started going indoor ice skating at a nearby college. We had a ball and loved each other's company, She was a funny lady and a good friend. Joan Porter Jordan Cosico.

“ I'm trying to find out if she is my old friend from New York State. Her husband's name is Timothy. The picture in her obituary looks like it might be her, and the date of birth could be accurate, as well. Please let me know if she is my old friend. My name at the time was Joan Porter (then married to Gene Jordan from Altamont.

“ I think about Linda almost every day. She was a wonderful friend who didn't deserve the pain and suffering she endured over the past 17 years. Linda was a Bridesmaid in my wedding in 1974. I babysat for Michael when he was only 6 months old. I miss you Linda but glad you are in the hands of Jesus now and that's where you wanted to be. Love you...Michelle
