

Lloyd E Green III

July 3, 1980 - September 22, 2019

Lloyd E. Green III, was a foodie, musician, sports enthusiast, and accomplished spender, died peacefully on Sunday, September 22, 2019. He was 39 years old.

As a point of pride, he was a walking talking encyclopedia of music and sports. He was a navigation expert of Las Vegas, which came in handy as his wife would get lost driving to the local store. Lloyd was a jokester, who could bring a smile to anyone's face. His energy could brighten any room and he could talk for hours about any subject, just ask anyone who knew him.

Thankfully, he was born July 3, 1980, as the 80s and 90s were his favorite decades. Even though he was born in Reno, Nevada, you would never know it as his heart was always in Boston.

He was a wiz at math and knew a plethora of useless knowledge he loved to share in the weirdest of times. He was as quirky as the company he worked for; Southwest Airlines and loved the people he worked with. Lloyd was intelligent, a quick learner, compassionate, and kind. He was unique and there will never again be anyone like him.

Lloyd was preceded in death by his father, Lloyd. Lloyd is survived by his beloved wife, Angelica; daughter Allie; mother, Linda; sister, Nikki, stepfather, Mike; stepmother, Jill and numerous friends and colleagues.

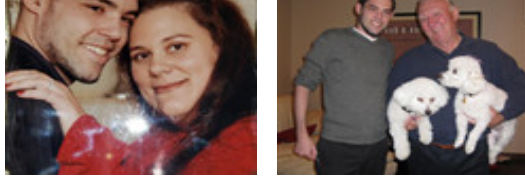

My dearest Lloyd, without your touch, life will be lonely. I will raise my hands to heaven and pray that you and I will be back together someday. Until then, rest in peace my love. You are no longer in pain.

There will be a celebration of life at a future date. Please contact Angelica at angel.aless.cass77@gmail.com if you wish to be contacted about his celebration of life gathering. As an expression of sympathy, memorial contributions may be sent to Angelica.

“ Rest In Paradise, Lloyd. No more pain. You fought a good fight, Sir.
It was a pleasure working with you at Southwest Airlines. May God bless your family.
