Lorene had a generous heart and was a gracious host. She opened her home to friends and family members when they were in need. She had a quick wit, strong sense of humor and positive outlook on life. An avid reader of mystery novels, she loved watching thriller mystery movies. Lorene was a talented pianist who could express her emotions through her playing. She would travel great distances to be present in all major family milestones. Lorene, who was affectionately called "Grams" was often seen at her grandchildren's sporting events cheering them on, wearing a floppy hat and a ton of sunscreen.

Lorene enjoyed the thrill of adventure and learning about the history of each state she traveled. She loved sharing many stories of her adventures and talking about growing up in a small town.

“ Lorene was an extraordinary woman with a sharp wit, keen intellect, and wonderful sense of humor. She was a great story teller and I especially enjoyed the childhood stories she shared about her eldest daughter, and my best friend, Diane. But, what I will remember most about Lorene was how she made me feel. She offered unconditional acceptance and warmth. This will always be remembered and cherished.

“ Lorene was always gracious and warm... and proud of her daughter Diane. She understood Diane well and would offer childhood stories and side commentaries that delighted and informed. In spite of physical adversity, Lorene remained positive and was generous with her smiles! Her smiles will be missed.

“ Love you, Mom- missing our drives up to Summerlin-starting with speciality coffee, browsing bookstores, trying our luck at a casino or two, topping off the day with cheesecake dessert. Thank you, Mom for all our adventures.
