

Ludlow Edison Cunningham

November 29, 1948 - February 16, 2019

Ludlow Edison "Bunny" Cunningham, age 70, passed away peacefully Saturday, February 16, 2019. Bunny was born in Kingston, Jamaica to Ivy Mae Reeves and Eardly "Glenn" Cunningham. He was the oldest of four children. Bunny attended Kingston College in Jamaica where he ran track and excelled in his academic studies. At the age of 17 he migrated to Canada and then to Brooklyn, New York with his family.

In New York, he pursued a career in banking and worked for Chemical Bank and Chase Manhattan Bank. However, his undeniable passion for music would change everything. From a young age, music played an integral role in his life. His grandmother told him to never stop following his musical passion and Bunny took that to heart, spending his life in pursuit of music. His journey took him around the world, through the US, Canada, France, Germany and many other places too numerous to list. He wrote and produced music for various artists and directed and played in numerous bands and was even a DJ when he first started out.

Everywhere Bunny traveled, he left a remarkable impact, touching the hearts and lives of everyone he befriended. He will be remembered as a blindingly bright light in the communities and lives of those he touched. To Bunny, life was a wondrous journey that never truly ended.

He is preceded in death by his mother Ivy and father Eardly, his brother, Calvin "Carl" Cunningham and sister, Carol "Elaine" Grizzle. He leaves behind daughters Carol and Krystal, sons, Jamal and Krystofer, his sister Stephanie and sister in-law Primrose, nieces Daena, Angela and Leeann, nephews Calvin, Kevin, Steven and Robert and a host of cousins, family and friends that he loved dearly.

Services under the direction of Affordable Cremation and Burial.