

Mark Del Medico

October 20, 1956 - November 22, 2025

When I must leave you for a little while, please do not grieve and shed wild tears and hug your sorrow to you through the years, but start out bravely with a gallant smile; and for my sake and in my name live on and do all things the same. Feed not your loneliness on empty days, but fill each waking hour in useful ways. Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer and I in turn will comfort you and hold you near; and never, never be afraid to die, for I am waiting for you in the sky!

“ Mark was my first boss. I remember a story he told from when he served in the military. He was responsible for supervising a deserter, and he was so excited at the chance to shoot him if he ran away. Sadly, Mark never got the chance to kill anyone during his service. While I knew him, he was planning to murder his new neighbors dog.
