

Marlin Christopher Cox

September 22, 1948 - December 11, 2020

Marlin Christopher Cox of Kingman Arizona, passed away on December 11th at age 72 from a sudden and brief valiant battle to survive a Ruptured Abdominal Aortic Aneurism.

Chris was a master builder, turning everything he touched into a masterpiece of the heart. He graciously shared his talents, building for anyone who asked and mentoring others. Born and raised in Southern California, Chris spent his childhood surfing at the beach. He developed his professional expertise in business with his dad before and after he served a tour in the Army. Chris and his wife of 31 years, moved to Mohave County in 2004. Chris had many talents including working on a Dairy, a long and short haul Truck Driver, Superintendent and Builder, Prop Maker and Set Designer for the movie industry and culminated his career as a Mohave County Combination Building Inspector until his retirement. Recently, Chris was appointed to the Planning and Zoning Commission for the City of Kingman. He loved surfing, cartoons, trucks, laughing, building, creating, his family, and more than anything his wife and Queen. He is survived by his loving wife, his adoring family, and many cherished friends.

He will be deeply and profoundly missed.
