

Martha Alicia Arellano Lopez

May 20, 1973 - March 6, 2026

Mom was a warrior.

Mom lived her life fighting for more. Whether that meant more food, more money, more love, more life, or just more time with us...her children. It was what motivated Her the most in life. Mom was an immigrant from Mexico, and she fought through her life just to get more freedom, like a warrior does. Mom became an American and gave the most she could to her very young daughter. She dealt with a lot in life... and we were VERY fortunate to have her. Nothing is sadder than seeing her gone and having her leave in such a way. At the same time.. she is and was a hero and a role model for what she was able to fight through just for a chance to be with us for as long as possible. She is an inspiration to fight as much as you can for what you want and care about the most. In this case, it just happened to be her family. We love you, Mom, and we Miss You EVERYDAY.

Love, your Kids

Tribute Wall

PA

“ My beautiful sister was such a strong person, growing up with her was fun times she was always very caring I will miss her laugh her warm hugs her way of being funny she was juts starting to live life bc of unfortunate things that she had to go through in life, her life was juts starting to bloom she was doing things she never got to experience she had found true love she was so happy her kids always there by her side her love for them bigger than anything else and then life hit her with cancer, She went all in fighting till she could not anymore she suffering a lot but God had a purpose for her already, She is missed will be missed and one day I will see her again ❤️ Love you Martha our Angel from heaven 🙏

Patricia Arellano - April 21 at 08:46 PM