Serenity Prayer

God grant me the Serenity to accept the things I cannot change, Courage to change the things I can, and Wisdom to know the difference.

“ It is coming up on a year now I can't believe it. I need you back in my life. I miss you more than anything. I think about you every single day probably multiple times an hour. I really wish that you were still here I am not over the way that you died. I feel like I failed I feel like I was not a good enough caretaker I feel like I was not a good enough advocate when you were in the hospital. I feel like I did something wrong or I could have did something different. I know I never left your side and I know that was the main wish but I just still have this eerie feeling that I didn't do enough. You never let anything bad happen to me especially death and I feel like I could not return the favor. I have never once thought that under your care something that could happen to me and I have a feeling you thought the same thing with me and I feel terrible that you never made it out of that hospital I know you never wanted to die in a hospital I know you wanted to die at home and I wanted to do everything I could to make sure that could happen but the way things went it was impossible. they told us that the surgery was pretty much non-invasive and you would be home in 3 days otherwise I would have never taken you there. I promise I would have left you at home. I feel so guilty for willing you in there and for the way things went. I never wanted you to go through ICU or be on life support even if it was only a couple days. I'm so sorry Nana I really did everything I could I promise. I took the life support off within 24 hours. They did the second surgery on you because you agreed to it beforehand in case something went wrong during the original surgery that's the only reason I allowed them to do that. Once the second surgery I realized was not going well and it wanted to keep you alive and see if things would change I realized that that would be against your wishes and I made the very hard decision to take you off. I love you with all my heart thank you so much for taking care of me I'm so sorry if I didn't do all of the right things by you at the end I really tried my best

“ Aunt Mary you will be missed terribly. There is not a memory our girls have that you haven't been a part of. You have always been there for me as a child and then as an adult. We will carry your memory with us. Until we meet again. Love you now and always ❤️

“ Aunt Mary was always special to me because she made me feel so special by having me (and my brother Tommy) as her Flower Girl & Ring Bearer in her beautiful wedding. Even as a 4 yr old I thought she was so beautiful. ❤️💔❤️💔

“ Nana I love you with all of my heart. I'm not going to write anything long on here because I am already upset enough. I love you more than I could even write on here anyway. I can't believe this happened. I never got to say goodbye. God I wish I could see you one more time you were the best person God ever created and I think everybody that I talked to agrees. I hope I can make it through this Nana I love you. Thank you for giving up your life for me. That's something I can never ever ever repay. I owe you everything
