“ Maxine was a year older than me, so we grew up together. We went to the same schools together and hung out as teenagers. Our lives just took us in different directions, but nothing would change the fact that she was my aunt. Maxine you have gained your wings and are Resting In Peace with so many of our family and loved ones.

“ She was my baby sister, I remember when my mom brought her home from the hospital, I go into the room where she was in her crib, I would shake her crib to wake her up. I'd go to my mom and tell her the baby is awake, my mom would say you woke her up, said I did, can I hold her. I going to miss you so much baby sister. I'm sorry I didn't get to spend more time with you, I love you sister
