“ The memory's of my dear cousin Mike will forever be with me. I'll always remember you guys living in hobart and we would ride the go cart,ride bikes amd mike running over my arm when I wrecked on the bike. He was my first best friend along with with Nick and Stevie. He will truly be missed and his spirit will live on forever we are heartbroken for everyone who knew Michael.

“ Our Lord has called your name my sweet Michael. Rest in the peace of the Lord. Thru all life"s hardships, sorrows and pain you were a shining light of selflessness always stepping up to give when needed without question. Love was in all your worldly accomplishments. As a child you were always a blessing from God, ours to love, cherish, have hopes and dreams to watch, share in your journey to manhood, even then you continued to keep your family close always involved in your life and you in theirs. Always you belonged to God, given to us for a while, to hold in our hearts thru eternity. Our Father has reclaimed his gift, so we grieve, we wait. THE PROMISE. I love you all, Aunt Sandy

“ The trails are all washed away now. Our time for Grief and sorrow now is upon our family. Our Michael is transformed to spirit, we each have Michael with us in all our souls so sweet, our memories and our laughter those our ours to keep. Your spirit is all around us flowing thru all you touched to know you is to love you. God has you in his keeping with all who were called before. Soon we will be together in the peace of our Lord. The Promise I love you always .
Aunt Sandy
