

Michael Evans Haywood

September 27, 1955 - August 4, 2024

My brother, Michael, was killed by a drunk driver August 4th. He was a good, quiet soul who loved to talk and visit. He was always willing to help a neighbor.

Michael was a gentle soul who loved to draw and write. His home is filled with his dreams of being an author of action heroes. He also created action figures from paper mache. He was a good man who lived on a budget but gave to St. Jude's and the classical music station.

Michael will be missed by family and friends.

"I love you, Michael."

“ Michael... RIP. It is impossible to learn that you would be in the neighborhood riding that easy bike anymore. Day or night, before i drive away from my parking lot, I seen you have always either coming back to your garage, or just ready to paddle away somewhere else. It was a peaceful image of you! I missed a super friendly neighbor you are!! Rest in Peace!! ”

“ Michael
It was a pleasure knowing you despite the short time we have known one another. We know that you were a polite and caring man who cared deeply for his fellow neighbors and his neighborhood. We are all saddened by your tragic passing but know that god wanted his angel and needed you for a higher purpose. You will be thought about and we know your spirit will remain around us.

“ Michael was a gentle soul who enjoyed bicycling around the neighborhood and chit-chatting with the neighbors. He had his routine which included being part of the swimming pool gang. Real nice guy that went to soon and left a void.

“ Michael "Mike" was a nice man and kept an eye out for the neighborhood. I lived down the street from him for 12 years and he was always pleasant and quiet. I will always remember seeing him riding his bike around the area. There was a time, he was kind enough to help me with my own bike tire and I appreciate that so much. My son, Zac would talk with Mike and also thought he was a nice man. I hope you are having a beautiful life on the other side, Michael. Rest in peace.
