Commendation Prayer

Most gracious and loving Father, we commend our loved one into Your hands.

We are filled with the sure hope that your departed servant will, like Your Son, rise again. We thank You for all the good things You gave our loved one while here on earth. May your servant praise You forever in the joy of Your presence. We ask this through Christ, Our Resurrected Lord.

“ A death of a parent can be one of the most difficult time and Heartbreaking experience that a daughter can go through . My mother was a loving mother .She only wanted the best for us .And so caring she walked With grace and so Elegantly dressed and beautiful inside and out , and her home was full of beautiful things from all over the world my father gave her the best of all world .My parents guidance and one have shaped me into the person I am today .I'm forever grateful for memories we shared .Mom and dad your absence is felt deeply in every moment of my life I carry your love with me wherever I go your memory will be a source of strength and inspiration not a day goes by without wishing you were here still . Your love are forever etched in my heart I love you so very much .We will all be together one day . Until then you are in my heart forever . I love you mommy and daddy , I miss you so very much !!

“ Michiko Weiss, even now, is a steady and resilient influence within my life. She was a strong supportive influencer in a usually very quiet way. Indeed - the true and important counter-balance to her overtly dynamic and wise husband, Mel.Her homes in Hawaii, Germany and Las Vegas were elegantly decorated, spotless and convivial. She dressed extremely well and was a joy to be near. Tanya and I are saddened by her departure to what must be a magnificent "luxury in store" in the heavens. Love,Jamie and Tanya
