When I'm Gone

When I come to the end of my journey and I travel my last weary mile, just forget if you can, that I ever frowned and remember only the smile. Forget unkind words I have spoken; remember some good I have done. Forget that I ever had heartache and remember I've had loads of fun. Forget that I have stumbled and blundered and sometimes fell by the way. Remember I have fought some hard battles and won, ere the close of the day, then forget to grieve for my going, I would not have you sad for a day, But in summer just gather some flowers and remember the place where I lay, and come in the evening when the sun paints the sky in the west, stand for a few moments beside me and remember only my best.

“ Mary had a good Heart always thinking what she could do to make friends and family happy and cook for them was number one on the list. You could see that sometimes it was too much work for her but she needed to do it on her own, once in awhile she let me make potato salad and other dishes but it was mostly her work in the kitchen. She would come to some of my parties at christmas and I would try to just make her have fun and laugh and eat ! she always appreciated being asked because she was always wanted and loved by everyone there! love you your adopted daughter Shirley Until we meat again!!

“ Those we love don't go away They walk beside us everyday Unseen, unheard, but always near. Still loved, still missed and very dear. Thank you Mother for being such a beautiful and loving person to me. Thank you Mother for all the laughter and giggles we had every time we spoke. We would always say that it was the Leo in us. Thank you Mother for all the great wisdom, knowledge, understanding that you gave to me. Mother I am saddened that I wasn't able to Crown your head on your 90th birthday this Thursday with the crown that I have for you. I know God have the final say so. Because God knows best. I know you was tired we talked about that. Mother Mary I will always hold a special place in my heart for you. Shine bright Mother as you smiling down on us. Happy Heavenly birthday Mom ❤️
