“ I have spent years searching for my dear friend from high school and Explorer Scouts, and now I have found her only to realize that I have already lost her again. For 2 years she was my ride or die, my closest confidant, my emotional support. I still remember fondly calling her and her grandmother would answer the phone "Nancy no home!" and then I'd hear " Granny, put down the phone, I'm here". It tore me up when we lost touch after my dad died and my mom moved me to Oklahoma. I've thought of her so many, many times over the years. I hope and pray that all her years were happy ones, and pray we meet again once my days are done.

“ It seems like forever since I have seen ur face and now it will be even longer. You were my center, the one place I always felt safe and the part that made sense in my life. I miss you so much and my heart hurts. I know ur up there with all the family we lost but I feel a little greedy because I want you back. I love you so much. U were my best friend, my ride or die. Until I see u again watch over ur grand babies. ❤️
