Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one. I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when my life is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times, and laughing times, and bright sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun. Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

“ Nancy, I'm the other Nancy you knew as Nancy Bolton's husband. We met occasional but enough to know how much you meant "to my Nancy".....

She always loved you and she always had either a very serious or very happy story about you two. She will miss you beyond words. May you have peace!

“ Nancy and family.....I met you several times but not enough to truly know you.

I am the other Nancy's husband Jim. The best I can say is that you were the sister my Nancy never had in her own family but you became her sister and thank you for that. I can only imagine the secret "boyfriend" conversations you must have had. Rest In Peace "Nancy's sister.

“ Dear Sweet Nancy...I cannot think of you without a huge smile on my face. Your passing has made me sad, but my loving, happy, funny memories of you will always be in my heart. You blessed so many of us with your sweet, kind self. I don't think I've ever known any one person as genuinely sweet and exceptionally funny as you. May you rest in peace. You were truly loved by all who knew you.
