Footprints in the Sand

One night I had a dream. I dreamed I was walking along the beach with the Lord and across the sky flashed scenes from my life. For each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to me and the other to the Lord. When the last scene of my life flashed before me, I looked back at the footprints in the sand. I noticed that many times along the path of my life, there was only one set of footprints. I also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in my life. This really bothered me and I questioned the Lord about it. "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you would walk with me all the way, but I have noticed during the most troublesome times of my life there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why in times when I needed you most, you should leave me." The Lord replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never, never leave you during your times of trial and suffering. "When you saw only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

“Granny, I miss you sooo much. I think about you often and wish that I could have seen you one more time. You will be in my thoughts forever and I will do everything I can to honor your memory. I just had a golf tournament and I placed 2nd. Granny, I miss hearing your soft voice and wish I could have talked to you one more time. Forever, will I hold on to the time I pushed you in your wheelchair when I was young, you should have seen the look on your face when I finally stopped, to much chocolate. Forever, granny and Kara.

“Though we were 3000 miles apart and I didn't see you often there is an empty space now. I will miss you.

“I am so thankful I was able to see you one last time last summer. I will never forget your sweet smile, your unmovable dedication to your son, and your unwavering mental and physical strength.
