God's Garden

God looked around His garden and found an empty place. He then looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face. He knew that you were suffering. He knew that you were in pain. He knew that you would never get well on earth again. He saw the road getting rough and the hills were hard to climb. So He closed your weary eyelids and whispered 'peace is thine.' He put His arms around you and He lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful, He only takes the best. If tears could build a stairway, and heartaches could make a lane, we'd walk a path to Heaven and bring you home again.

“ Let us see to it that the recollection of those we've lost becomes a pleasure, for nobody cares to cast their mind back to something causing pain. Reflect that we also shall not be long in reaching the place we mourn them having reached. Those we suppose dead have merely been sent on ahead Seneca

“ Born in the same year of 1951, I felt an immediate kinship with you Trish. But you were one of those rare individuals that crossed all boundaries of age. Young and old we all felt comfortable in her presence. She seemed to smile from her heart and just being around her made you want to smile too. Each time I saw her she was in the company of so many loved ones, and she will be greatly missed because so many had the privilege of knowing and loving her. From one "baby boomer " to another; God speed Trish

“ Trish was my best friend's grandma. As she is an angel in heaven now, she was an angel on earth as well. She was one of the kindest, most loving, caring, and happiest people I have ever had the honor of knowing. She had a heart of gold. She will be missed by so many and may her beautiful soul rest in peace. ❤️

“ Mrs. Weakly. Forever Mrs. Weakly. I was blessed to be a student in her very first kindergarten class. I have so many wonderful memories from that year. Later I babysat for her beautiful daughter, Cassie. You're all in my thoughts and prayers. May your Faith guide you and your memories comfort you now and always.
