When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while, please do not grieve and shed wild tears and hug your sorrow to you through the years, but start out bravely with a gallant smile; and for my sake and in my name live on and do all things the same. Feed not your loneliness on empty days, but fill each waking hour in useful ways. Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer and I in turn will comfort you and hold you near; and never, never be afraid to die, for I am waiting for you in the sky!

“ I worked with Duffy at the Trop and have many special memories of him. We shared a lot of laughter, and it was always fun to make him blush. He told so many stories of his adventures in Alaska and the hermit that he came upon. He told about the stuffed bears in his apartment, and we teased him about the fact that it would take a special girl to live with those!! In addition to the many stories that Pat shared, he also shared his gaming knowledge with his fellow employees. He took his job seriously and always had my back. As often happens, we lost touch through the years, but I always thought of him on St Patrick's Day and pictured him in his head to toe green outfit in the Henderson parade. He was a great guy!
