He Only Takes the Best-Male

God saw he was getting tired a cure was not to be, so He put His arms around him and whispered "Come with Me". With tearful eyes we watched him suffer, and saw him fade away, although we loved him dearly, we could not make him stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hardworking hands to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.

“ Thank you for the love and care that you gave us especially me, you always made me feel like one of your own. You did things your way till the end and that's what made you YOU. You always loved us and your grandchildren. We will forever miss your beans no one can ever make them the way you did, trust me, I have tried and they do not compare. You will forever be missed. Rest in paradise dad. Will miss you!!LOVE you Dad!!

“ I loved Randy as if he was my Dad's Brother as if he was my uncle, Randy was an uncle by marriage but when I was growing up he was more of an uncle than thoughts who were my blood!! I didn't have a lot of friends when I was a teenager, especially freinds that were adults but Randy Webb was one of those people! He would cook for me, he would give me advice, we would sit an talk for hour's! When me and my Dad weren't getting along which is often, I would crash at his house on his couch! It didn't matter what he was doing, this man always answered the door for me! The man I knew was much more than my Dad's best friend, or an uncle through marriage, he was my uncle, he was my friend! Randy Webb was patient, smart as a whip, hard working and most importantly and caring man! Hearing the news of his passing weighs heavy on my heart and my thoughts and prayers go out to him and all his kids/family and anyone else who had the pleasure of knowing this incredible man!! May his soul rest in peace, we'll see you when we reach the other side!!

“ I took this beautiful picture of my Father & friend Randy about a month ago. I put the flash on my phone camera & I asked my Dad to look away from the phone so the camera flash would capture the moment & my Dad's beautiful blue eyes! The past nearly 6 years living with him & seeing my Father suffer with unimaginable physical & emotional pain caused me to often cry. I do feel my Father's selfless act of pure love was one of the many reasons why he worried so much about my siblings & I yet he didn't ever think of himself only the ones he loved ❤️ so deeply & it was us (his five kids) my Dad always shared memories of his life telling me he first came to Las Vegas in 1957 from Kentucky & that he was about four years old. He had a good sense of humor, he knew how to cook very well & over the years since we've lived together here in Pahrump - since August 2016 all my Dad always told me was to do better for myself. So I started to & I will continue to remain positive and strong like I always have all of my 35 years on earth i feel like my Dad Randy was so tired & he no longer had the strength physically, mentally, emotionally or spiritually to continue living his life everyday In pain. I will always love you Dad & I will FOREVER remember how much you've encouraged me to grow as an adult and into the man I am today! yesterday, today, tomorrow & ALWAYS I will cherish the memories I have of you Father. You are no longer in pain and the angels in the beautiful heavens welcomed you in with open arms! I love you Dad & I miss you more than I could ever express in words. The world lost one amazing man. Dad... you will forever be tucked In my heart ❤️ and soul. Time itself cannot erase love. I'll see you one day at heavens gates my Father my FRIEND!

“ From youth to old age , Randy loved his family. All families have problems, but love "does not keep account ..but love never fails".- 1 Corinthians 13: 5,8.

“ I was just listening to your voice messages, My heart is broken, I am missing our daily calls on the phone. You would call me every day, to check on me & you would make me laugh with your jokes. I remember as a child you always laughing and making jokes with all us children growing up. We could get pretty loud, and now I am loud like you. When I would visit, you would make your special beans and corn bread. Everyone in the family would fight over those beans, they truly deserved an award. No One could make them like you. We would order HUGE Pizzas and fingers with lots of Ranch, & went swimming at Aunt Wandas house, I never wanted to leave you. You had so many friends, no matter how much time passed. Your best friend was Greg Kesterson. You loved him. You loved us all and worried about us all the time, like a good father does. I am thankful of the time I got to spend with you after you moved to Pahrump. You we're so hilarious, goofy, caring and I know you loved all of us. I'll watch bonanza for you, I promise to always keep you in our memories and I will keep that promise I made you. I'm so sad without you, I love you daddy.
