Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one. I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when my life is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways. Of happy times and laughing times and bright sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun. Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

“ I loved Rasheed. He was one of the good ones. He was one of the first people I met when I moved here in 2003. Always beautiful in so many ways. I loved how much he loved Elta as well.

“ Rasheed was a dear friend and the best handyman I've ever known. There wasn't anything he couldn't do. He tackled some impossible feats at our house. Everywhere I look I see his handiwork...he was a blessing in our lives and our home.

“Rashid was a wonderful friend, he was so willing to help others. He loves his Elta with all his heart. In life he took care of her with the deepest respect and trust, and he will continue to do so as her angel as I believe no one dies. We just leave the body. He had a way of making everyone around him laugh and keep happiness alive. The memories of wonderful times will heal those of us left behind. I miss being able to share with him his talent in making others happy as we worked together on a couple of projects. I believe his soul has risen to a heaven where Gods love shines brightly. We are spiritual beings living a human life. Life being eternal, Rashid has just changed form and will forever be with his bride.”

“We use to laugh that Rasheed knew my house better than I did as he worked on projects with me these many years. Knowing Rasheed it was easy to become friends because of his kindred soul. He was always there for everyone - he was there when my mother passed away and Rasheed and Elta came to the services beause that is the special couple they made. You will be missed - but not forgotten - and always in our hearts.”

“I never knew Rasheed personally, but I feel I knew him from Elta. It's very rare when you meet a person like Elta and can only imagine how much Rasheed will be missed. I'm so sorry to hear about Rasheed's passing and can't imagine Elta's loss. I can only hope the hole in your heart will heal with time. You know you are loved and appreciated and that Rasheed will always be a part of your life journey.”

“ I will always think of the two of you as a power couple. It was obvious you were both deeply in love and together you could do anything. Elta, Ernie and I are so sorry about your loss of Rasheed. The wonderful thing is that you found each other and shared a beautiful love for so many years together. Wishing you the peace that passes all understanding...

“ Mr. Rasheed Rahim was a close friend of mine. We looked out for one another, drank beers and scotch together, worked on projects together and laughed and smiled doing it all. Rasheed came to this great country with a tremendous sailing journey from his home country of Trinidad. While he was in San Diego dropping anchor of the sail boat after a treacherous trip on the open ocean he met the love of his life, Elta. The two complimented each other so well. Everything Rasheed did was for his dear wife Elta to make their life together better and more enjoyable. It was common for Rasheed to work 12 hours a day six or seven days a week. Rasheed was one of the hardest working people that I have ever met. He worked for so many people from all over the entire valley. He worked off of word of mouth, no need to advertise, his excellent work product spoke for itself. Rasheed was one of the hardest working people that I have met. He was skilled with so many different trades, he was truly the "Jack of all Trades". To quote his dear wife Elta, "Rasheed can fix anything", and she was right. Rasheed will be missed by all, especially me. I look forward to meeting you again Rasheed in the next life so that we can click our scotch glasses together in a toast again to our close friendship.

“ Rasheed is an AMAZING soul. I say "IS" because his soul is/always will be with us; it never dies, only changes form. Having been blessed to spend time with him, I know the wonderful gift he gave to us all of his LOVE, compassion and understanding. Thank you so much for sharing him with us all. After we adjust to his absence, we will embrace the true essence of his spirit which was always coming from Love and respect.

“ Although I barely really knew you I knew you were one of the kindest men I had ever met. The love you and Elta shared was very evident. May your spirit live on in your family and friends. Your memory will be eternal. Godspeed.

“ Uncle I cant believe youre gone! I remember all those times that you would come and pick us up and carry us to the beach. You are the gentlest giant I have ever known. I know you are happy with your mom and dad and the rest of the family. Keep smiling down and guide us with your light. Rest easy uncle! You will forever be missed and loved!
