I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free. I'm following the path God has laid you see. I took His hand when I heard His call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work, or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void then fill it with remembered joys. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. O yes, these things too, I will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full I savored much, good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee... God wanted me now. He set me free.

“ Becky although we worked together for just but a couple of years, we shared enough time that we had many talks, stories, jokes, laughs, sometimes worries and even tears. I am thankful and grateful to have met such a beautiful and courageous woman. Thank you for sharing a little bit of your life with me during the time we worked side by side, for allowing me to open up about my Mothers own battle with her Cancer and for always being so sympathetic and caring. Many times you had very uplifting words for me and for that I am forever thankful. You began your own battle not too long ago and the talks we had just seemed to flow since this theme was no stranger. You made some beautiful gifts for my nieces with your own hands. A very crafty person you were and those little Llamas were presented to them as a gift from their departed Grandmother. They adore them! And are but extra special to them for not only are they gifts from their grandmother whom parted after a three year battle but are too extra special for these were hand crafted by a Warrior herself. Becky you were not just a co-worker but family for we spent many days and hours working side by side. Work Family is as real as our own. I'm very lucky to have met such an amazing, peppy, funny, caring, spunky, witty, devoted to her family, brave and bold warrior. You touched so many lives including mine and an extension of me. And for that opportunity and time I will forever be thankful. Thank you for all that you allowed me to share in such brief time and for all the beautiful memories you leave me with. I shall hold on to them for you made a mark not only in my life but in my heart. I hold you in my heart just like you held me with your embrace many times. My Love, prayers and sympathy to your family and loved ones. Lilia
